

IF ANYONE CAN BEAT, WHIP, REDUCE, CRUSH, DASH,
MASH, FLAMBÉ AND SHRED HUNGER, WE CAN!

But we need your help!

Chefs for Humanity is an alliance of culinary professionals and educators working in partnership with U.S and global organizations, providing nutrition education, hunger relief, and emergency aid to reduce hunger across the world.

CFH Chefs Council

Charlie Ayers
Rick Bayless
Cat Cora
Elizabeth Faulkner
Dean Fearing
Bobby Flay
Gale Gand
Diane Hendericks
Robert Irvine
Katie Lee Joel
Grant MacPherson
Christina Pirello
Marcus Samuelsson
Tim Scott
Art Smith
Robert St. John
Bradford Thompson
Ming Tsai

- Chefs for Humanity is looking for Culinary Students and Professionals to help support our National WE CAN! Cook Healthy Classes and programs in 2008.
- Volunteers will work in teams to produce hands-on cooking and nutrition programs and classes for children and their families.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED—WE CAN! Cook Healthy Series

The Children's Museum of Manhattan—April 12th, featuring Bradford Thompson

Need 12 volunteers, CMOM—West 183rd between Broadway and Amsterdam, 9 am to 4pm

The Children's Museum of Manhattan—May 10th, featuring Christina Pirello

Need 12 volunteers, CMOM—West 183rd between Broadway and Amsterdam, 9 am to 4pm

School Break Week in the South Bronx—April 22nd, 23rd and 24th

12 pm to 5 pm—volunteer one, two or all three days

Need 3 to 5 volunteers each day. The Classic Center, 286 East 156th Street, The Bronx

We will be working with 60 kids—a variety of ages.

The Children's Museum of Manhattan

4 Part Family Series at The Children's Museum of Manhattan

3 to 5 volunteers, AFTERNOONS, July 13, 20, 27, August 3

To VOLUNTEER—CALL 646.546.0644

<http://www.chefsforhumanity.org/contact.php>